

Nick Torenvliet - Technical Committee

Nick Torenvliet graduated from McMaster University with a BA in Classics, B.Eng in Engineering Physics, and an M.A.Sc in Software Engineering. He is currently a PhD candidate with Systems Design Engineering at the University of Waterloo. Nick has been with Bruce Power for 18 years and has worked in Computer Design, Operations, and Specialized Tooling. He is currently working in a research and development role within Engineering at Bruce Power to provide advanced automation and decision support to the analysis of fuel channel ultrasonic data.